MEC SCOTT GRACES THE 13TH EDITION OF THE DUNDEE JULY

KwaZulu-Natal MEC for Finance Belinda Scott has encouraged horse fanatics participating in the Dundee July to hoist high the flag of the small KwaZulu-Natal town by seeking more opportunities to grow the event.

The equestrian event which is now in its 13th edition saw thousands of horse lovers, fashionistas, models and business people converge in one area for a day of festivities, carnival and networking. Accompanied by HoD Ntokozo Chonco, MEC Scott who was representing both Premier Willies Mchunu and MEC for Arts, Culture, Sports and Recreation, Bongzi Sithole-Moloi took time to also assist the Coastal Horse Care Unit in inspecting the health and conditions of the horses participating in the event.

She later addressed thousands of patrons and guests before presenting awards and trophies for the triumphant jockeys and horses.
