MEC NOMUSA DUBE-NCUBE TO ENGAGE BUSINESS FRATENITY AT THE POST-BUDGET BUSINESS BREAKFAST

Following the resounding success of the tabling of her Provincial Budget Speech Policy Statement on 9 March 2022, KwaZulu-Natal MEC will, on Tuesday 15 March 2022, begin her first of a host of post-budget activities with a Post-Budget Business Breakfast.

MEC Dube-Ncube will be joined by Finance Deputy Minister, Dr David Masondo as they dissect the Budget Speech to the business community that will include captains of the industry. Deputy Minister Masondo will also provide both a national plan of action and global picture.

“In our pursuit of a working province, it is critical that all social partners come together so that we know where the gaps need to be plugged. Through our push for the infrastructure revolution we have expressed a need for major investment in public infrastructure to alleviate poverty and drive job creation,” said Dube-Ncube. The Post-Budget Breakfast also provides an opportunity for the business sector to contribute in the government programme of action by defining opportunities that can be tapped to keep the economy afloat.

Members of the media are invited to cover, report and reflect on this event whose details are as follow:
